

Tickets for the 2018 UCI Road World Championships available now!

From 22 to 30 September, the 2018 UCI Road World Championships will take place in Innsbruck-Tirol (Austria). On eight days of competition, more than 1,000 athletes will battle it out in Team Time Trial, Individual Time Trial and Road Race events for the right to wear the coveted UCI Rainbow Jersey. The races will start in four regions of Tirol – Ötztal, Hall-Wattens, Alpbachtal Seenland and Kufstein – and lead along a range of different courses before finishing in the centre of Innsbruck. Cycling fans keen to follow the action can book tickets for the finish area now and benefit from exclusive Worlds holiday offers.

Cycling fever throughout Tirol

Visitors to the four start regions which will feature at the 2018 UCI Road World Championships can look forward to world-class action in front of a stunning mountain panorama. The first races of the Worlds will begin in the Ötztal Valley at AREA 47, Austria's largest outdoor adventure centre. Just as impressive is the setting in Wattens, where the riders will set off from the Swarovski Crystal Worlds on their way towards the finish in front of the Hofburg imperial palace in Innsbruck. Picturesque Rattenberg with its narrow medieval streets will also host the start of races during the 2018 UCI Road World Championships, while the fourth and final start location is the fortress town of Kufstein surrounded by the breathtaking Kaiser Mountains. In short, the whole of Tirol has been seized by cycling fever!

Different ticket categories

The finish area in front of the Hofburg imperial palace will be a hotspot for action and celebrations throughout the 2018 UCI Road World Championships. Two categories of tickets are available for this area: VIP Tickets and Fan Tickets. Fan Tickets start at just €9.90, while VIP Tickets cost from €180. Ticket holders will enjoy a front-row view of the sporting action and direct access to all the parties and concerts going on during the event. VIP guests also have access to the outdoor VIP area next to the finish line as well as to the exclusive 3,000m² indoor VIP zone with its lounge area and all-inclusive catering.

Furthermore, holders of tickets can use the public transport network within the city of Innsbruck (IVB) and across the Tirol region (VVT) free of charge on the day of the event. A range of special deals and discounts are also available for ticket holders in the online fan shop, at the Swarovski Crystal Worlds and on the funicular railway and cable cars which transport passengers from the city centre up to the Nordkette mountains at over 2,000 metres in just 20 minutes. Why not travel into the Alps, enjoy the majestic views and then head back down into the city in time to see the new UCI World Champions crowned?
