

PRESS RELEASE

A spectacular start: Global superstar Jason Derulo to be the opening act in Ischgl

On 24 November 2018, global multi-platinum recording artist Jason Derulo will be making his Ischgl debut and kicking off the winter season at the legendary Top of the Mountain Opening Concert. Admission to the concert is included in the day ski pass. The Silvretta Arena will begin operation on 22 November 2018.

On 24 November 2018, Ischgl will be celebrating the opening of the skiing season with Jason Derulo at the legendary Top of the Mountain Opening Concert. The Alpine lifestyle metropolis will be on its feet as the multi-platinum powerhouse performs his most successful songs such as 'Colors' (the official Coca Cola anthem of the 2018 Football World Cup), 'In My Head', 'Want To Want Me' and 'Whatcha Say'. The live concert will begin at 18:00 before the night-time backdrop of the Silvretta mountains. And for those who fancy some skiing before the concert: snow is guaranteed on 22 November, when the Silvretta Arena with its 239 cross-border kilometres of slopes from Ischgl to Samnaun and the new Gampenbahn lift kicks off the skiing season. Anyone seeking action away from Ischgl's famous pistes can get an adrenaline rush on the 'Ischgl Skyfly' zipwire which runs from the Silvrettabahn middle station. The day ski pass also serves as an admission ticket to the concert and costs 65 euros per person on the event day. Admission to the concert is included with a valid ski pass of two days or more. Tickets (day ski pass incl. concert) for 65 euros will soon be available online at www.ischgl.com subject to availability. All information at www.ischgl.com.
