

PRESS RELEASE

Ischgl invites visitors to the eventful sunny skiing

Sunny skiing in Ischgl means lots of sunshine, magnificent firm snow, exciting events and spectacular concerts. The highlight: the open-air 25th anniversary ‘Top of the Mountain Closing Concerts’ with Eros Ramazzotti on 2 May 2020.

Ischgl really gives its all during the sunny skiing season at the white Silvretta Arena over 239 km of pistes and from 1,377 to 2,872m altitude. Visitors to the largest certified climate-neutral ski resort in the Alps can enjoy optimal skiing conditions and guaranteed snow. Magnificent firm snow descents, impressive ski tours, lots of sunshine, a well-maintained après-ski culture and in particular a casual ambience await from mid-March until the beginning of May at the big open-air events on and off the piste. Concert tip: those who would like to combine optimal snow conditions and sunshine with live music should note down 2 May at the Silvretta Arena in their calendar. To mark the spectacular end to the skiing season in Ischgl, Italian Rock-Pop icon Eros Ramazzotti will be performing on the legendary Idalp stage as part of the 25th anniversary ‘Top of the Mountain Closing Concerts’ at the heart of the ski resort. Admission is free with a valid ski pass. More information: www.ischgl.com.
