Get ready to experience an uproarious blend of comedy and alpine adventure as Altitude Comedy Festival announces its return to the picturesque snowy slopes of Mayrhofen, Austria.

From the 1st to the 5th of April 2024, comedy aficionados and winter enthusiasts come together on this breathtaking Alpine destination for five days of non-stop laughter, captivating performances, and unforgettable memories.

Altitude Comedy Festival is renowned for its unique fusion of world-class comedy acts and stunning mountain landscapes. As the leading winter comedy festival in Europe, Altitude continues to attract an unrivaled lineup of top-notch comedians from across the globe. With a reputation for showcasing both established stars and rising talents, the festival guarantees an exceptional blend of side-splitting stand-up, improvisation, and hilarious antics.

Featuring an array of meticulously programmed performances, Altitude offers something for every comedy lover. Audiences can expect uproarious punchlines, call-backs, and belly laughs which echo across the picturesque slopes. The festival's diverse lineup ensures a dynamic mix of comedy styles, and the glorious setting of Mayrhofen ensures there's absolutely no end to the list of amazing activities to keep you entertained.

If you don't ski or board, snow problem! The resort offers some of the world's best spas, restaurants, bars and views where you can fill your days before the evenings of comedy commence. There's also a sled-load of activities such as paragliding, trekking, tobogganing and more which can keep you entertained if skiing or snowboarding just isn't your thing. Many of Altitude's performers and guests learn to ski for the first time during the festival, so if you did want to take a beginners ski or snowboard lesson you would never have to do so alone.

"We are thrilled to announce our Altitude Comedy Festival dates and line up for 2024," said Brett Vincent, Managing Director of Altitude Comedy Festival. "2024 promises to be our funnest and most sensational yet. The lineup of comedians we've got in store are all utterly brilliant - we are beyond excited for next year. There's a reason we were named BEST OVERSEAS FESTIVAL and that we consistently receive 5 star reviews from our guests. Altitude is the ultimate feel-good trip and there is truly no better setting to laugh your (ski) socks off in".

There's some incredible bargains to be had with 7 nights in fantastic chalets from £285pp and return flights to Innsbruck for less than £300!
