

World stars Martin Garrix & Steve Aoki headline the EMF 2025 in Sölden

From 31 March to 04 April 2025, the Electric Mountain Festival (EMF) will set the pace at the Heartbeat of the Alps. With superstars like Martin Garrix, Steve Aoki, and other international top DJs, the EMF promises five days full of music highlights against a stunning mountain backdrop – combined with great skiing.

In its more than ten-year history, the EMF has established itself as a true must-visit for electronic dance music fans. Tens of thousands of visitors travel to Sölden to party alongside international top acts at an altitude of over 2,000 meters in the heart of the ski area. Where pulsating beats meet spectacular mountain panoramas – an experience of a very special kind that combines skiing, culinary treats and festival flair.

Top-notch lineup of global superstars

The Electric Mountain Festival 2025 already presents a lineup that is getting electronic music fans in the mood to party. The absolute highlight: Martin Garrix, one of the world's best DJs. The Dutchman fills the biggest festival stages between Tomorrowland and Coachella, thrilling the audience with hits like Animals, Scared to Be Lonely, and In the Name of Love. The second headliner is American Steve Aoki, one of the scene's most influential personalities. Thanks to energetic shows, legendary cake-throwing moments and collaborations with stars like Linkin Park, BTS, and Kid Cudi, Aoki will transform Giggijoch into an XXL dance floor. The lineup will be complemented by other top-class artists such as Benny Benassi, Julian Jordan, AVAION, Morten Brooks, Jaden Bojsen and many more.

Tickets and rates

Admission to the festival is free of charge for holders of the "Ski & Dance Pass," valid ski tickets, multi-day skipasses for 3+ days and season tickets, including Snow Card Tirol & Regio Card. For visitors without ski equipment, separate

"Festival Only - EMF Dance Passes" are available for Thursday and Friday at Giggijoch. For the first time, holders of a valid EMF ticket can use the EMF shuttle bus for free from Ötztal-Bahnhof and within Sölden on both main festival days. Tickets are available online at: www.soelden.com

Special experience in a unique setting

In addition to pulsating beats and an exhilarating festival atmosphere, the EMF offers exclusive VIP experiences. Those who want to enjoy the event from a special perspective can book one of the limited VIP packages. Culinary treats will be provided by the award-winning kitchen chefs of ice Q gourmet restaurant, which has been awarded two toques by Gault Millau Guide.

Festival highlights across the ski area

The Electric Mountain Festival 2025 boasts a huge variety of impressive venues. In addition to the XXL main stage at Giggijoch beyond 2,000 meters above sea level, countless side event locations throughout the ski area ensure a multi-faceted festival program from Monday to Wednesday. Locations include the FALCON Restaurant at the middle station of Gaislachkogel, sun-kissed Heide Alm on ski piste no. 2, Philipp Sölden, Annemarie's Hühnersteign, Panorama Alm and the exclusive ice Q restaurant at the summit of Gaislachkogel. Several after-show parties round off the day. For the first time, the EMF will end on Saturday with official closing parties at the cult venues Philipp Sölden and Panorama Alm. These truly unique locations offer festival fans the great chance to enjoy electronic dance music in different settings, combined with perfect slope conditions. From the ski run straight to the dance floor.
