

GERLOS GIVES YOU SUMMITS

Free summer cable car access for guests in Gerlos

Gerlos is making summer holidays even more attractive: In summer 2026, rides with the cable cars are once again included for all guests staying at accommodation establishments in Gerlos with the Zell-Gerlos TopCard (guest card). This means holidaymakers can enjoy unlimited free rides on the mountain lifts in Gerlos and Königsleiten and comfortably experience the impressive mountain scenery of the Zillertal and Pinzgau regions.

Reach new heights – Without Any detours

With the Zell-Gerlos TopCard, overnight guests benefit from unlimited ascents and descents during operating hours and can conveniently reach the most beautiful hiking and excursion destinations by mountain lift.

Particularly convenient: the digital guest card is issued directly by the accommodation provider and allows direct access through the turnstiles – with no waiting times or queues at the ticket offices. This means the mountain experience begins from the very first minute.

The following mountain lifts are included:

- Isskogelbahn Gerlos
Operating times: 20 June – 11 October 2026 as well as 16–18 October & 23–26 October 2026
- Dorfbahn Königsleiten
Operating times: 20 June – 4 October 2026

Mountains full of possibilities – fall in love with summer in the Alps

Gerlos delights visitors with a wide range of leisure activities for sports enthusiasts, families, and nature lovers. Around 400 kilometres of hiking trails and 325 kilometres of biking routes invite guests to actively explore the breathtaking mountain panorama. Whether it's a leisurely scenic hike or an action-packed adventure – everyone will find the perfect holiday experience here.

The varied summer programme ranges from guided hikes and downhill fun on the single trails to canyoning, paragliding, and climbing, as well as relaxing hours at the Durlassboden reservoir with pedal boating and water activities. The high ropes course and numerous nature experiences in the five side valleys surrounding Gerlos also create unforgettable holiday moments.

Family time to remember

Families can also look forward to a wide variety of experiences in the Zell-Gerlos region. Exciting adventure worlds, family-friendly attractions, and diverse leisure activities make summer holidays a special experience for both young and old. Specially tailored programmes for children and teenagers ensure that even the youngest guests get the most out of their stay.

More Comfort for Your Summer Holiday

With the Zell-Gerlos TopCard (guest card), guests in Gerlos can enjoy even more comfort and freedom while exploring the mountains in summer 2026. Whether it's an active holiday, pure relaxation in nature, or a family adventure – Gerlos offers the perfect setting for unforgettable summer days in the mountains.
